Parenting Plan.

- c. Recommending to the parents strategies for creating or implementing the Parenting Plan. Such recommendations may include that one or both parents avail themselves of accessible and appropriate community resources, including, but not limited to, random drug screens, parenting classes, and individual psychotherapy or family counseling, if there is a history or evidence that such referrals are appropriate.
- d. Recommending to the parents changes to the Parenting Plan.
- e. Educating the parties to effectively:
  - i. Parent in a manner that minimizes conflicts;
  - ii. Communicate and negotiate with each other and their child(ren);
  - iii. Develop and apply appropriate parenting skills;
  - iv. Understand principles of child development and issues facing child(ren) when their parents no longer live together;
  - v. Disengage from the other parent when engagement leads to conflicts and non-cooperation;
  - vi. Identify the sources of their conflict with each other and work jointly to minimize conflict and lessen its deleterious effects on the child(ren); and,
  - vii. Allow the child(ren) to grow up free from the threat of being caught in the middle of their parents' disputes.
- f. Reporting or communicating with the court concerning nonconfidential matters as provided in paragraph 6 of this Order. In the event the parenting coordinator is unable to adequately perform the duties in accordance with the court's direction, the parenting coordinator shall file a written request for a status conference and the court shall set a timely status hearing. The request for status conference must be in substantial compliance with Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.984(d). A report to the court of an emergency pursuant to section 61.125(8), Florida Statutes, must be in substantial compliance with Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.984(c).
- g. Communicating with the parties and their child(ren), separately or together, in person or by telephone, unless otherwise prohibited by court order or applicable law.

If a party causes the parenting coordinator to expend an unreasonable and unnecessary amount of time, that party may be held solely responsible for payment of the parenting coordinator's fees and costs for such time expended, and the court reserves jurisdiction to reallocate the payment of fees and costs in that event. Failure to pay the parenting coordinator's fees and costs in a timely manner may subject the party to sanctions for contempt of court.

- 6. Confidentiality. All communications made by, between, or among the parties and the parenting coordinator during parenting coordination sessions are confidential. The parenting coordinator and each party may not testify or offer evidence about communications made by a party or the parenting coordinator during the parenting coordination sessions, except if:
  - a. Necessary to identify, authenticate, confirm, or deny a written agreement entered into by the parties during parenting coordination.
  - b. The testimony or evidence is necessary to identify an issue for resolution by the court without otherwise disclosing communications made by any party or the parenting coordinator.
  - c. The testimony or evidence is limited to the subject of a party's compliance with this Order of Referral to Parenting Coordinator, orders for psychological evaluation, counseling ordered by the court or recommended by a health care provider, or for substance abuse testing or treatment.
  - d. The parenting coordinator reports that the case is no longer appropriate for parenting coordination.
  - e. The parenting coordinator reports that he or she is unable or unwilling to continue to serve and that a successor parenting coordinator should be appointed.
  - f. The testimony or evidence is necessary pursuant to section 61.125(5)(b) or section 61.125(8), Florida Statutes.
  - g. The parenting coordinator is not qualified to address or resolve certain issues in the case and a more qualified coordinator should be appointed.
  - h. The parties agree that the testimony or evidence be permitted.
  - i. The testimony or evidence is necessary to protect any person from future acts that would constitute domestic violence under Chapter 741, Florida Statutes; child abuse, neglect, or abandonment under Chapter 39, Florida Statutes; or abuse, neglect, or exploitation of an elderly or disabled adult under Chapter 825, Florida Statutes.
- 7. Agreement on Nonconfidentiality. The parties can agree to waive confidentiality of a specific communication or all communications. The waiver must be in writing, signed by the parties and their respective counsel. The waiver shall be filed with the court and a copy served on the parenting coordinator. Either party may revoke their waiver of confidentiality by providing written notice signed by that party. The revocation shall be filed with the court and a copy served on the other party and the parenting coordinator.

- 8. Scheduling. Each party shall contact the parenting coordinator within 10 days of the date of this Order to schedule the first appointment. The parenting coordinator shall determine the schedule for subsequent appointments.
- 9. Stipulation. Any written stipulation of parties to utilize the parenting coordination process filed with this court is incorporated into this Order.
